PRESENTS

SAFE MEDICATION MANAGEMENT

Karen received her Doctorate of Pharmacy (Pharm D) from the University of Florida and a Bachelor of Pharmacy (BScPhm) from the University of Toronto. She holds board certification in pharmacotherapy, geriatrics, ambulatory care and is a Certified Diabetes Educator licensed to practice in Ontario, Michigan and Florida.

Karen is currently practicing as a community pharmacist at Hogan Pharmacy providing Medication Therapy Management services. She also practices as a hospital pharmacist at Northwest Telepharmacy and is a professor at Lambton College in the Pharmacy Technician Program. She acts in a consultant capacity to various companies to develop and deliver educational pharmacy programs to various audiences and has published many journal articles related to pharmacy practice. She serves her profession at the Ontario College of Pharmacists as a Profession Committee Member. Her volunteer work includes a volunteer position on the Board of Directors for the Sarnia Lambton Alzheimer Society. This presentation to the Sarnia Prostate Cancer Support Group is being sponsored by Hogan Pharmacy.
